

Disclaimers

Readers are cautioned that certain statements made by Sprout Social relating to environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) matters, including those included on their sustainability webpage or social impact report (such statements, “ESG Statements”), may constitute “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”). Forward-looking statements include any statement that does not directly relate to any historical or current fact. Forward-looking statements may project, indicate or imply future results, events, performance or achievements, and such statements may contain the words “expect,” “intend,” “plan,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “believe,” “will be,” “will continue,” “will likely result,” and similar expressions. In addition, any statement concerning future performance, ongoing strategies or prospects, and possible actions taken by Sprout Social are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are based on current expectations and projections about future events and are inherently subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond Sprout Social’s control, that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated or projected. Developments in any of the risks or uncertainties facing Sprout Social, including those described in risk factors included in annual and quarterly reports and other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) made by Sprout Social, could cause results to differ materially from results that have been or may be anticipated or projected. Given these risks and uncertainties, readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and Sprout Social expressly disclaims any obligation or undertaking to update these statements to reflect any change in expectations or beliefs or any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any forward-looking statement is based.

The inclusion or absence of information in Sprout Social’s ESG Statements should not be construed to represent any belief regarding the materiality or financial impact of that information.

ESG Statements may be based on expectations and assumptions that are necessarily uncertain and may be prone to error or subject to misinterpretation given the long timelines involved and the lack of an established single approach to identifying, measuring and reporting on many ESG matters. Calculations, statistics, and certain facts included in ESG Statements may be based on third-party information, current estimates, assumptions and projections and therefore subject to change. Sprout Social’s ESG Statements have not been externally assured or verified by independent third parties.

Sprout Social’s ESG Statements may contain links to other internet sites or references to third parties. Such links or references are not incorporated by reference into the applicable ESG Statement and Sprout Social cannot provide any assurance as to their accuracy.

These ESG Statements represent current Sprout Social policy and intent and are not intended to create legal rights or obligations.
